7th Annual
American
Indian
Learners Conference

University of Central Oklahoma
Nigh University Center
Edmond, Oklahoma

About the Conference

Conference Objective:

This one-day conference addresses the issues of American Indian students and their relationships with faculty, curriculum content, and their school. Explore how these relationships affect the facilitation of learning for these students.

Participant Objective:

To be able to take back into their classrooms and schools key ways of integrating the American Indian culture into their subjects using art and language integration. Use handouts and material lists to generate new ideas and develop creative learning atmospheres at various levels in the curriculum for all students while making a connection to the American Indian learners' culture.

2011 Planning Committee:

Ines Burnham, Oklahoma Center for Arts Education

Jame Lyn Eskew, Kiowa Nation

Nancy Fields, American Indian Cultural Center & Museum

Sue Folsom, Choctaw Nation

Cyndi Houser, Choctaw Nation

Lesley Penton, Oklahoma Center for Arts Education
